immediately.) ...six-parts have all been delivered to the people who requested them, so there are no more bills left up in the Bill Drafters Office. On...in some of those occasions, the bill's been delivered to an office, to staff or to yourself, and so there are no more bills up there. If you're waiting for a bill to come down, it's down. And, if there's not, would you please call Joanne immediately to work out where that bill may be at. We're going to try to get all those bills. Please, if you're going to introduce it, try to get it in, in the next 15 minutes. We're going to be open for the next hour, probably, to an hour and a half processing the bills, but to help out staff, would you please get them in, in the next 15 minutes. If you don't know where the six-part is, please call Joanne. Thank you, Madam President.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you. Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: Thank you, Madam President, more new bills. (Read LB 774-797 by title for the first time. See pages 273-278 of the Legislative Journal.) And that's all that I have at this time, Madam President.

EASE

ASSISTANT CLERK: (Recorder not activated immediately.) ...President, Senator Coordsen would like to convene a Reference Committee meeting right now in Room 2102; that's Reference in 2102.

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Coordsen.

EASE

SENATOR CROSBY: (Recorder not activated immediately.) ...from South Sioux City and Betty DeWall from Omaha. Would you all stand up and be recognized and welcomed by your Legislature. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Madam President, new bills. (Read LB 798-824 by title for the first time. See pages 278-284 of the Legislative Journal.)
